Dads & Donuts:

- Presented by Bunney Schmidt
- Not enough donuts even at 48 dozen.
- Super turn-out and well advertised with banners, flyers, etc.
- Coupons to go to students that didn't get donuts when they ran out... Bunney to make sure those that need these get them. Notice will be placed in the newsletter to ensure those that need them will have them.

PTA Spirit Award:

- Presented by Bunney Schmidt
- Bunney wrote 4 page application (using many quotes from members of our PTA) about Carol Jean Bishop.
- Carol Jean won the Regional round and now is in the running at the State level.

Make-A-Wish:

- Presented by Carol Jean Bishop
- The MAW Foundation sent us a plaque plate in appreciation for our support of their charity.
- A letter was sent to say thank you and to give update on McKenna and how our support has made a difference in her life as well as her family.

Mark Kastleman:

- Presented by Carol Jean
- Great turn-out, but not packed turn-out as expected.
- Feedback was super; however, having it on a Wed made it hard to gain attendees.
- News of the event could go to Stake Presidents next year.
- Everyone can go to www.markkastleman.com to purchase his book.

Character Trait Challenge:

- Presented by Lori Sanders
- The trait is FAIRNESS
- No TV challenge done again due to super feedback from last year.

Volunteer Recognition:

- Presented by Bunney Schmidt
- Teachers to turn in names of one of the most helpful volunteers.
- Next PTA meeting, a time for some food/small gift to thank them.
- Looking for additional volunteers from this group for next year's PTA.

School Gift Committee:

- Presented by Bunney Schmidt
- Still putting together volunteers for this committee.
- The committee will consider the Roots of Freedom as well as other ideas to present at a future PTA meeting.

Family Skate Night:

- Presented by Bunney Schmidt
- March 24 at the skating rink.
- Monday night works well as it is a great activity for FHE for families. Great turn-out expected as in the Fall.

Review of Calendar:

- Presented by Bunney Schmidt

Science Night:

- Presented by Bunney Schmidt
- Chemist to come in.
- Possibly pizza served.
- Root beer on dry ice for chemical reaction. Possibly cookies or pop rocks.

- It will be citizenship
- Suggestions for the assembly.
 - Music discussed.
 - Speaker as a possibility.
 - Youth in our area that could be involved.

RADS:

- Presented by Bunney Schmidt and Ada Wilson
- Community Council supports this program that promotes personal safety.
- Teachers get trained and grade levels rotate through the program.
- Principal Davies to talk to PE teacher to see if she will be back next year and worth the time/money to sponsor her training in the program.
- Maybe PTA will bring it on board for security and offer the program after school.

Rainbow Evacuation:

- Presented by Mary Harper
- April 10 drill at 10:30am
- Need parental permission slips
- The map of the color for neighborhoods available online.
